Human Capital Consulting Partners Engaged by Aker Philadelphia Shipyard

Trevose, PA, May 11, 2011—Human Capital Consulting Partners today announced a new consulting contract with long-time client Aker Philadelphia Shipyard. Human Capital Consulting Partners will assist Aker in assessing the training and development needs of its first-line supervisors. As part of this contract, Human Capital Consulting Partners will conduct individual meetings with front-line supervisors to understand what support they require in managing people on a day-to-day basis. At the completion of the interviews, management will receive a written report outlining findings, recommendations, and possible next steps to help address the needs of the supervisors.

“Aker full understands the importance of its supervisors and managers having the right skills and competencies to manage people,” said Jim Geier, President, CEO, and Founder of Human Capital Consulting Partners. At Human Capital Consulting Partners, we assist organizations in developing, training and coaching supervisors and managers at all levels to be great leaders.”
