Human Capital Consulting Partners Opens West Coast Office

Philadelphia, PA, September 30, 2009—Human Capital Consulting Partners, a leader in developing best-in-class people processes, today announced the opening of the firm's west coast office in San Carlos, CA. Heading up the new office will be Western Regional Director Marty Jordan, a seasoned human resources executive.

Ms. Jordan brings a diverse background working with organizations in the energy, financial, technology, healthcare, telecommunications, government, and non-profit sectors. She has worked with C-level executives and their teams to build and implement key programs and processes needed to plan for, acquire, develop, and deploy the critical talent needed to execute on their business strategies. In addition, she serves as an adjunct faculty member for the Human Capital Institute where she teaches and coaches HR professionals completing their Master Human Capital Strategist designation.

"We see opportunities on the West Coast where Human Capital Consulting Partners can help companies grow by aligning their human capital strategy with their business strategy," said Jim Geier, President and Founder of Human Capital Consulting Partners. "Marty's background and experience as a highly skilled facilitator, team builder, advisor, and coach will be invaluable as we launch our business on the West Coast."
